InQuiry Note Editor - Updated Launch Date

Region - US, CA, AU

We want to thank all of our beta testers for their valuable feedback on the new InQuiry Note Editor. Based on their input, we're implementing several requested changes to enhance the editing experience. As a result, we are adjusting our launch timeline to ensure the final product meets expectations.

The new InQuiry Note Editor will now be launched on June 3. Through July 8, you'll be able to access the legacy note editor on a per-note basis. On July 9, the Note Editor will become the standard editing tool in InQuiry, and the legacy editor will no longer be available.

We appreciate your continued engagement and look forward to delivering an improved note-editing experience.
